TER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 28 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent help. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nervine. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no ovil effects I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms." We sincerely trust, as we believe, that the coming campaign will be conducted upon a higher plane of morals than some witnessed in the recent past. There is no need to inaugurate a system of bitter no need to inaugurate a system of bitterness or to inject personalities into the discussions, and should it begin the people ought to stay away from the meetings. We are entering upon a new and better era. The passions of the past have been almost wholly obliterated and it is only a crank now and then who is kicking.—Conway Independent Republic.
